Der Name Samedi Lounge („Samdi“) leitet sich aus dem Kreolischen von Baron Samedi ab.

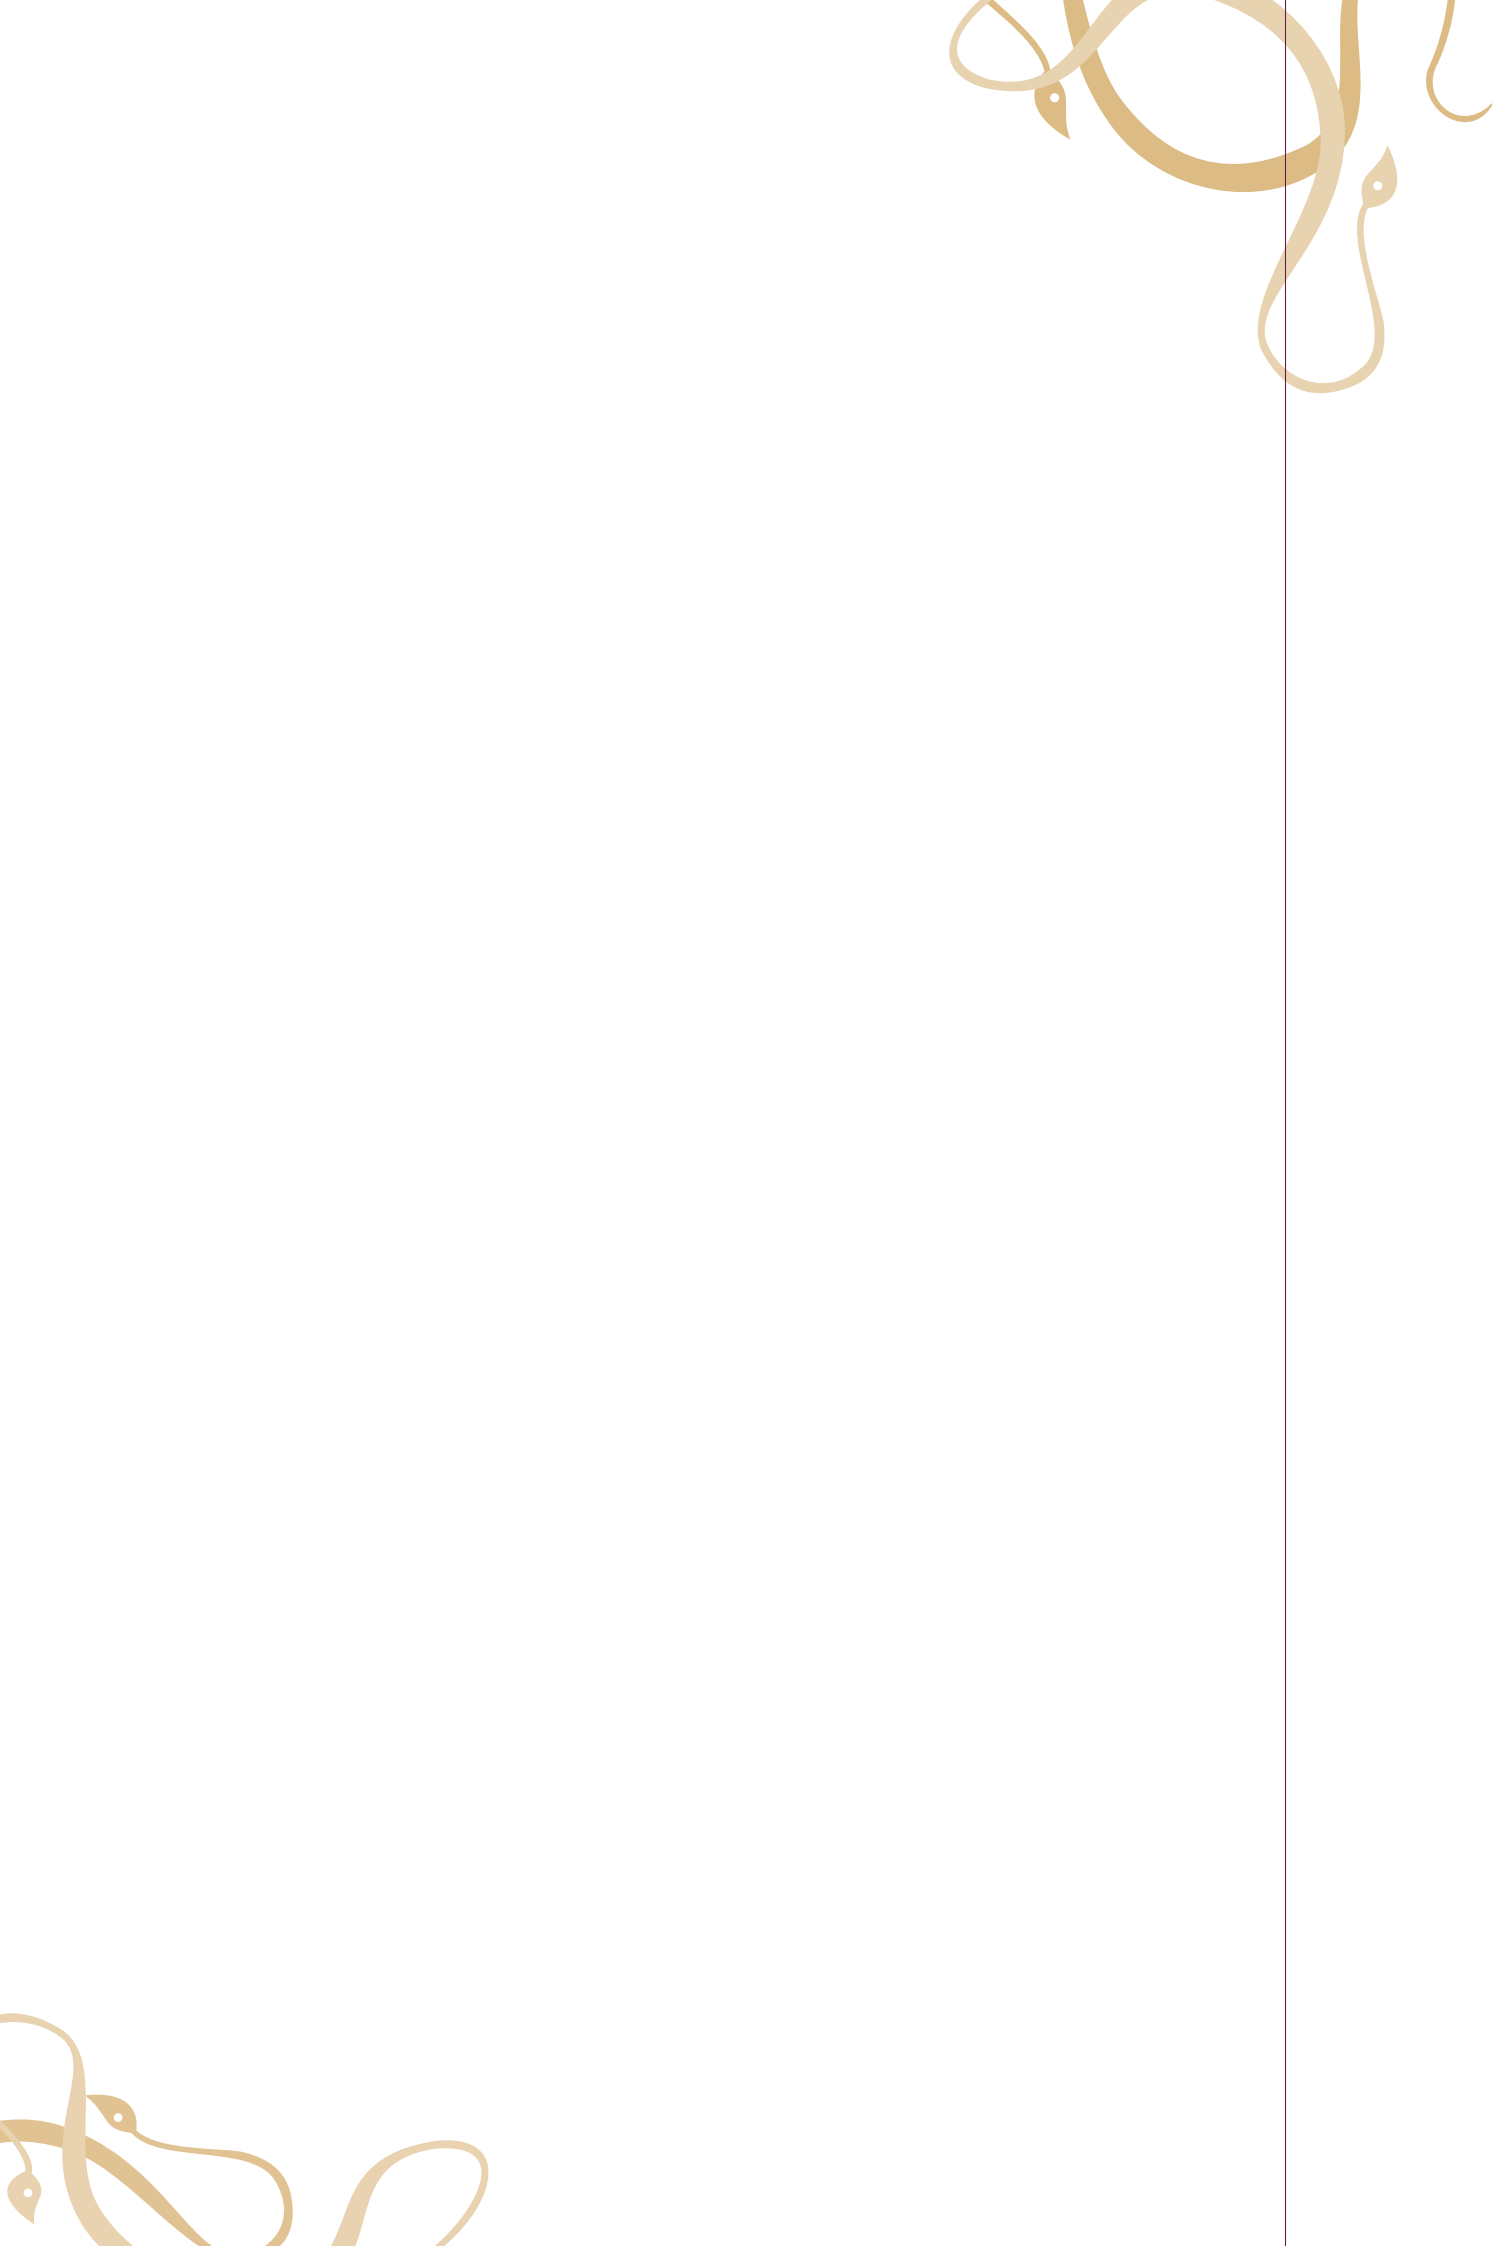

Baron Samedi ist einer der wichtigsten Loa's (Loa bedeutet Gott oder Geist) im haitianischen Voodoo kult. Stellen Sie ihn sich als großen Mann mit Zylinder, einem langen schwarzen Frack und dunkler Sonnenbrille vor. Guede, wie Baron Samedi auch genannt wird, ist ein Fruchtbarkeitsgott. Er wacht über das Leben aber auch den Tod. Er ist Beschützer der Liebe, der Kinder und außerdem einer der größten Heiler des Voodoo Pantheons. Da er die Gewalt über Leben und Tod besitzt, ist er die erste Instanz an die sich die Haitianer bei Krankheiten wenden.

Baron Samedi ist der humorvollste, respektloseste und obszönste, aber gleichzeitig der mitfühlendste aller Voodoo-götter, immer bereit Menschen zu helfen und ihnen in ihrer Not beizustehen. Samedi ist wahrlich der Weise im Narrenkostüm. Sein heiliger Tag ist der Samstag und seine Opfertage sind alles was sich essen und trinken lässt. Er bevorzugt Rum und Zigarren, liebt Fladenbrot, verschmäht aber auch Kerzen nicht.
